YOU NEVER KNOW WHEN
IT'S GOING TO BE EASTER!

"When is Easter this year?" is a question I frequently hear. Its date "floats" - occurring the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox (the first day of spring).

Easter Sunday, April 20, will soon be upon us. Yet Easter is not something that one can limit to a day on the calendar.

The Bible tells us 'On the Road to Emmaus, Jesus himself came up and walked with a couple of disciples - yet they did not recognize him. It was in the routine task of sharing a meal they finally recognized Jesus. Jesus comes up and walks with us, but something keeps us from knowing who it is. Perhaps we don't expect Jesus to be with us here and now, or perhaps we're caught up in our own concerns and activities. Have you ever felt the darkness of a problem overshadowing you like Good Friday - when hopelessness fills the air?

Yet, like the dawn of Easter there comes a Spirit, a strength, a friend, an answer, something that you hadn't noticed before - breathing new life back into you. Yes, right here in our midst of our everyday tasks, Christ is transforming you, all the world and me. It doesn't matter what day it is, a spring filled day in April or a summer day of May, "Suddenly, it's Easter!" as God's presence fills you and the world with new hope and possibilities.

Remember your "Easters," those times you have felt Christ especially close to you - give thanks to God for them. Let them remind you that Christ is with you always - especially today. Consider how you can share the "Easter" spirit with someone else, through your smile, your listening, your comforting words, your friendship, your talents and resources... your faith and prayers.

Every day is Easter as we are born anew to be creatures of God's love, sharing the Good News of Easter, and helping others experience the miracle of God's love in their lives.

Be Respectful of Others

As we grow as unique persons, we learn to respect the uniqueness of others.

- Robert H. Schuller

There is no respect for others without humility in one's self.

- Henri Frederic Amiel

There is overwhelming evidence that the higher the level of self-esteem, the more likely one will be to treat others with respect, kindness and generosity.

- Nathaniel Brandwn

Every good relationship, especially marriage, is based on respect. If it's not based on respect, nothing that appears to be good will last very long.

- Amy Grant

Every human being, of whatever origin, of whatever station, deserves respect. We must each respect others as we respect ourselves.

- U. Thant

Once you respect yourself, there is no longer any reason to disrespect anyone else. Once you are confident of your own worthiness, the worthiness of others ceases to be an issue.

- Jonathan Lockwood Huie

Best Prayer I Have Heard in a Long Time

Heavenly Father,

Help us remember that the jerk who cut us off in traffic last night is a single mother who worked nine hours that day and is rushing home to cook dinner, help with homework, do the laundry and spend a few precious moments with her children.

Help us to remember that the pierced, tattooed, disinterested young man who can't make change correctly is worried 19-year-old college student, balancing the apprehension over final exams with his fear of not getting his student loans next semester.

Remind us, Lord, that the scary looking bum, begging for money in the same spot every day (who really ought to get a job!) is a slave to addictions that we can only imagine in our worst nightmares.

Help us to remember that the old couple walking annoyingly slow through the store aisles and blocking our shopping progress are savoring this moment, knowing that, based on the biopsy report she got back last week, this will be the last year that they go shopping together.

Heavenly Father, remind us each day that, of all the gifts you give us, the greatest gift is love. It is not enough to share that love with those we hold dear. Open our hearts not to just those who are close to us, but to humanity. Let us be slow to judge and quick to forgive, show patience, empathy and love.

The UCC, What We Believe

We believe in the triune God: Creator, resurrected Christ, the sole Head of the church, and the Holy Spirit, who guides and brings about the creative and redemptive work of God in the world.

We believe that each person is unique and valuable. It is the will of God that every person belong to a family of faith where they have a strong sense of being valued and loved.

We believe that each person is on a spiritual journey and that each of us is at a different stage of that journey.

We believe that the persistent search for God produces an authentic relationship with God, engendering love, strengthening faith, dissolving guilt, and giving life purpose and direction.

We believe that all of the baptized 'belong body and soul to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.' No matter who – no matter what – no matter where we are on life's journey – notwithstanding race, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, class or creed – we all belong to God and to one worldwide community of faith. All persons baptized – past, present and future – are connected to each other and to God through the sacrament of baptism. We baptize during worship when the community is present because baptism includes the community's promise of 'love, support and care' for the baptized – and we promise that we won't take it back – no matter where your journey leads you.

We believe that all people of faith are invited to join Christ at Christ's table for the sacrament of Communion. Just as many grains of wheat are gathered to make one loaf of bread and many grapes are gathered to make one cup of wine, we, the many people of God, are made one in the body of Christ, the church. The breaking of bread and the pouring of wine reminds us of the costliness of Christ's sacrifice and the discipleship to which we are all called. In the breaking of bread, we remember and celebrate Christ's presence among us along with a 'cloud of witnesses' – our ancestors, family and friends who have gone before us. It is a great mystery; we claim it by faith.

We believe the UCC is called to be a united and uniting church. "That they may all be one." (John 17:21) "In essentials—unity, in nonessentials—diversity, in all things—charity," These UCC mottos survive because they touch core values deep within us. The UCC has no rigid formulation of doctrine or attachment to creeds or structures. Its overarching creed is love. UCC pastors and teachers are known for their commitment to excellence in theological preparation, interpretation of the scripture and justice advocacy. Even so, love and unity in the midst of our diversity are our greatest assets.

We believe that God calls us to be servants in the service of others and to be good stewards of the earth's resources. 'To believe is to care; to care is to do.'

We believe that the UCC is called to be a prophetic church. As in the tradition of the prophets and apostles, God calls the church to speak truth to power, liberate the oppressed, care for the poor and comfort the afflicted.

We believe in the power of peace, and work for nonviolent solutions to local, national, and international problems.

We are a people of possibility. In the UCC, members, congregations and structures have the breathing room to explore and to hear ... for after all, God is still speaking, ...
