FROM THE PASTOR

A SACRED SEASON

“Tis the season” and off we run trying to get everything done before Christmas arrives. Yet what is this season? Well, Advent is a time to prepare, to open our hearts to the Son of God – born in humble surroundings. A time of new beginnings in our lives and the world. And Christmas is a time originally intended to celebrate the birth of Christ; marked by worship, getting together with family and friends and giving gifts. A beautiful season of lights and music. Sadly, also frequently it’s marked by excess of stress, spending, traffic and guilt. A Question: Wouldn’t it be wonderful to help each other combine the spirit of Advent and the beauty of Christmas, to simplify a bit, to discover what God’s up to this season and be part of that? Each year we speak of hope, peace, joy and love; what if we live them? What if, with God’s help, we make this a sacred season!

Each week in worship we will remember and celebrate God’s Son coming to our lives and world as we light our Advent Candles. Live out your faith with Advent Acts. Below are some suggestions for simple ways that we can all be a part of God’s rebirth of hope, peace, joy and love in this world with the coming of the Christ Child.

Hope: Week One: Nov. 29- Dec. 5.

Our Gospel lesson is Mark 13:24-37. What one thing can you do this week that can help renew hope and lessen fear? Watch for ways God is at work restoring hope in someone’s life. Advent Acts: Choose one habit you’ve wanted to break, and begin breaking it; visit a home-bound member; recharge your prayer life; watch less television-spend less time on the internet; donate to a helping agency your talents, time or money; bring food for the local food pantry.

Peace: Week Two: Dec. 6-12.

Our lessons are Mark 1:1-8 and Isaiah 40:1-11. How can you live more the peace of Christ in your life? Commit an act of peacemaking, whether in your own life, the community, or far beyond. Help children to be the best they can be in a safe community. Spend time in quiet, and in prayer listening for Christ’s Spirit in you, in the world, who brings peace to all creation.

Advent Acts: Write a letter to someone from whom you’ve been estranged or call them; check out the ucc.org website to see what the UCC is doing for peace; pray for peace; write your elected leaders expressing your views for peace and cooperation; learn to communicate, in compassionate, non violent ways.

Joy: Week Three: Dec. 13-19.

Our Gospel lesson is John 1:6-8,19-28. Where do you find joy in your life? Is it deep and satisfying or shallow and fleeting? Discover again the joy of God’s love – receiving it in your life as well as sharing it with others. In the midst of shopping, planning, rushing about this week, pause and appreciate what brings you joy, whether it is Christmas lights, carols, family time – what ever. Allow yourself time to enjoy. Give a selfless act of kindness to some one in need that you may share joy with another. Advent Acts: Make a list of three simple, free things that bring you joy and try to do at least two of them this week; be a secret Santa, give up one “ought to” activity; give one less gift and write a heartfelt note instead; spend less time in stores shopping and more time with loved ones; come to worship; listen to music; Laugh.

Love: Week Four: Dec. 20-24.

Our Gospel lesson is Luke 1:26-38. What is the most loving thing you can do this week? For God’s world, for those you love, for yourself? Advent Acts: Read the Christmas story in Matthew 1 or Luke 2 slowly; send a card with a note or call someone who may be alone this week; read 1 Corinthians 13; be extra patient, extra kind this week; set aside time for those you love and tell how much they mean to you; for that tough relationship-ask yourself what is the most loving thing you can do?; spend quiet time in prayer, opening your heart to receive the love of Christ in whose birth we celebrate!

Christmas Dec. 25, Luke 2.

You, O God, are born in us. Be born in us and your world today.

A merry and blessed Christmas to all!

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Some people indicated a desire to know the recipe for a "trail-mix" dish Ellen and I took to the Church Thanksgiving Dinner.

NUTTY O's:

- 1 C packed brown sugar
- 1 C dark corn syrup
- 1/2 C butter or margarine
- 12 C Cheerios
- 2 C pecan halves or 2 C pecans
- 1 C whole almonds or 1 C dried fruit

In a large saucepan heat brown sugar, corn syrup and butter until sugar is dissolved. Stir in cereal and nuts; mix well. Spread onto greased 15x10x1 baking pans. Bake at 325 for 15 minutes; stir to loosen from pans. Cool completely. Store in airtight container.

PLAYMATES NEWS

November was a busy month here at Playmates. We enjoyed the mild weather and explored nature, looking for signs of fall.

Pastor Dave talked to us about being thankful at Chapel Time. He even taught us how to say thank-you in sign language.

All three of the classes will get together for our annual “Taste of Thanksgiving” at the end of November.

In December, we will spend the month talking about Christmas and learning its true meaning. On the 17th, we will have our Christmas program, “Mary, Mary, What Do You See?”

From your friends at Playmates Preschool, “Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!”

THINKING AHEAD - - -

I know you think this is early but - it is never too early to plan ahead.

This message is a reminder to all of you who claim charitable deductions on your income tax. The last deposit/posting of accounts for the year will be made on Monday, December 28. Because Christmas falls on Friday, December 25, all contributions mailed or brought in person must be received in the office by noon on Thursday, December 24. The Sunday collection of December 27 will be counted on December 28 but mail delivery does not arrive until after the deposit is made on Monday. So please plan ahead – if you are not going to be in church on December 27, please mail or bring your last contribution of the year in plenty of time. If you are considering a contribution being sent from a financial institution in your name, please do it in early December. In order for contributions to be shown on your 2015 statement (which you will receive in January), they need to be in the office by noon on December 24th. Thank you for your continued support of First Congregational United Church of Christ.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

Women's Fellowship will meet in Fellowship Hall for our annual Christmas Tea on Friday, December 11th at 1:00 PM. As discussed at our Nov. Gathering, all who wish to participate are asked to bring 1 dozen Christmas cookies to share and if they wish to have a cookie exchange to bring another dozen or two. That way you will get to take 1 or 2 dozen cookies back to your home for enjoyment later.

Our entertainment will be by our Bell Choir with Bette Fankhauser and her ringers so plan to be entertained by some great music and perhaps we'll get to sing along with a few Christmas Carols. We never seem to get to sing enough Christmas songs.

Invite your friends to come join us for a relaxing fun good eating afternoon. So we know we have "room enough" please let one of us know if you are coming and who you plan to invite or bring along. Surely you have a good friend or relative you would like to invite to come and enjoy this wonderful season and time of the year.

Call Martha Crookshank 877-7468, Ellen Whitrock 875-0835, Norma Lingenfelter 877-3952 or Darla Weltmer 877-7008 by Sunday December 6th. See you there.
